Course ID: CHE 581
Effective Date: 03/01/2008
Title: Chemical Vapor Deposition and Processing
Career: Graduate
Credit Hours: 3.00

Description: Prerequisite: CHE 253, CHE 441, CHE 435 or the consent of the instructor. Theoretical and experimental concepts involved with chemical vapor deposition and processing of advanced and nanomaterials.

If you would like course section specific information, your faculty member may have posted information in Blackboard. Click on the "Bb" link to the left. You can preview the "Course Information" and "Staff Information" sections.

If you would like to see the required texts for this class, click the "Books" button to the left.

Disclaimer:

The course descriptions provided herein are for the guidance of students. The University, however, reserves the right to change course descriptions without prior notice.

The provisions of this listing do not constitute an express or implied contract between the University and any member of the student body, faculty or general public.

The displayed information is the latest available from the Student Records system which is maintained by the Registrars' office.